

Wendywood High School – Learner Code of Conduct Acceptance Form

Introduction

This form is intended for the activation of the code of conduct and must be preceded by both the learners and her/his parents familiarising themselves with the contents and details of the code. It is compulsory for both the parent and the learner to sign the form on an annual basis. No learner would be admitted to the school upon admission without signing and submitting the form to the school. All signed forms will be placed in a learner's individual file together with other biographical, academic and personal conduct documents amongst others.
